

Preston Residence

The Preston Residence consists of a modest extension to the rear of an already existing home. The owners with a family on the way were in need of living space. The design achieved the owners needs by providing an addition to the rear of the building which, while distinct in design from the existing building, blends in well with the existing interior space, providing sufficient light into the living space and comfort to the owner with an open view to the backyard.

SECTION A-A scale 1:100